1. North Korean Labor Party officials in late October were maintaining that North Korea will never give up territory north of the 38th parallel. The North Koreans may agree on a truce at the present battle line, but at the earliest opportunity they will regain it, by force if necessary. The Soviets and Chinese Communists have promised the North Koreans to assist them with arms and men.
2. The North Korean Labor Party recently issued an order to party members only which instructed each party cell to organize a "Collective Farmers Force" to work on government collective farms under government protection. The farm laborers will be pro-United Nations or pro-ROK Koreans, or families of North Korean army deserters, or refugees who fled south with the United Nations forces in December 1950.
